Certain officials of the Rumanian Ministry of Interior are convinced that, in addition to their economic interests, the Russians desire to establish a fifth column in Rumania by the creation of new SOVRON corporations. They point out that the Russians would be able to place 100,000 men in all parts of Rumania since the agreement negotiated with the Rumanian Government provides that the USSR will provide personnel for the new companies. The Rumanians are required to provide necessary raw materials, and other new items for the establishment of the new companies will be furnished in equal parts by both governments.
